

QUESTION 3

10 Marks

Create an HTML file to produce a layout consisting of five sections: Header, Navigation, Article, Menu, and Footer (refer to Figure 1).

You are given a file named templateQ3.html. This file contains HTML code, and the result is as in Figure 2. Figure 3 is the source code for templateQ3.html. Please enter the CSS source code in the `<style>` column to produce the output. You are NOT allowed to use a table to create this layout. Instead, use any appropriate dimensions for the design. Once completed, please submit a file named templateQ3.html at the e-learning link provided.
